

COMMUNITIES OF PRACTICE

Jonathan P. Edwards, Ph.D., LCSW, ACSW, NYCPS
NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Jonathan P. Edwards is a program consultant and licensed clinical social worker for New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, Bureau of Alcohol and Drug Use Prevention, Care, and Treatment and also consults nationally on peer support services implementation and supervision, as well as plays an integral role in advancing peer workforce development in mental health and substance use treatment settings. He is former director of peer support services at Kings County Hospital Center, Brooklyn, NY where he supervised nearly 30 peer specialists working across five different service settings and developed and facilitated a support group for family members. Jonathan received his Ph.D. in Social Welfare from CUNY Graduate Center, his Master's in Social Work from Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College where he is currently an adjunct professor and is a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers. In addition, he is a New York Certified Peer Specialist and a Certified Personal Medicine Coach. Jonathan serves on the National Association of Peer Supporters (N.A.P.S.) Board, New York Peer Specialist Certification Board, and Mental Health News Education Board. Jonathan identifies as a person in long-term recovery, which is the driving force behind his worldview, advocacy, scholarship, and professional direction. He is the recipient of a behavioral health innovation award from the McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy and Research, New York University Silver School of Social Work, and a peer leadership award from Mental Health Empowerment Project.
